RE: T-Mobile USA, Inc. Second Transition Report
Implementation of 911 Abbreviated Dialing Code
CC Docket No. 92-105; WT Docket No. 00-1100

Dear Tom:

Pursuant to the Fifth Report & Order in this Docket,<sup>1</sup> T-Mobile USA, Inc. ("T-Mobile"), formerly known as VoiceStream Wireless Corporation, hereby submits its Second Transition Report regarding the transition to 911 as the universal emergency telephone number in those areas where the 911 abbreviated dialing code is not in use.

In the Public Notice which followed the release of the Fifth Report & Order, the Commission provided further guidance to carriers on the information required to be submitted in their Second Transition Reports. Specifically, the reports were to include the following information:

1. Carrier identification information, including the name and address of the reporting carrier, the name of the reporting carrier's parent company, the name of the individual(s) filing the report and contact information including office address and telephone number;
2. The geographic areas covered by the report; and
3. The emergency response point to which calls are now being routed.

T-Mobile provides this information below.

Section One: Carrier Identification Information

T-Mobile USA, Inc.
401 Ninth Street, NW
Suite 550
Washington, DC 20554

Sections Two and Three: County Information

The following table provides the relevant information for each geographic county area identified in Appendix D to the Fifth Report and Order. T-Mobile does not provide coverage in the vast majority of the counties listed in Appendix D. For those counties in which it does provide coverage, T-Mobile provides the name of the PSAP and the date the transition was completed.<sup>2</sup>
